

William E. "Bill" Crabtree

September 29, 1918 - March 14, 2015

William E. "Bill" Crabtree, 96, of Dover and formerly of Roodhouse peacefully entered His eternal home on the morning of Saturday, March 14, 2015. Born September 29, 1918 in White Hall, he was a son of the late Ernest and Hattie Book Crabtree. William retired from AMTRACK with 30 years of service in the railroad industry. He attended Community Baptist Church in Dover and sang in the church choir. William was an outgoing person, who never met a stranger; he was also an excellent story teller who loved talking about his life adventures.
